Meeting Minutes:

1. A presentation about the terms and conditions involved in a social networking site with respect to contents posted by the user was given.
2. Dr. Yue and Mr. De Silva gave their feedback on the presentation which mainly consists of:
   a. To investigate more on Domain specific Social networking sites
   b. To find out the difference between Facebook code of conduct and terms of service
   c. To find out why the number of users of Facebook are increasing.
3. We asked our questions regarding the framework of the technical paper which has to be written.
4. For the question regarding where to get information regarding the kind of capstone projects done in other universities, Dr. Yue advised that ACM digital library would be a good source.
5. Mr. De Silva discussed about the organic growth of websites where the site provides basic features and a year from now, the users should have used these basic features into things that we have not thought about. He mentioned that community will morph into things that they need.
6. Mr. De Silva mentioned that the concept of Web 2.0 is a totally different where it uses a collaborative environment when compared to content based environment.
7. On the question as to whether what mechanism is used to evaluate the quality of final product, Dr. Yue asked us to find out. Mr. De Silva suggested the success of a social networking site would be measured in terms of rating and the number of registered users.
8. Mr. De Silva and Dr. Yue also asked us to think differently from all view points.
9. Mr. De Silva asked us to investigate as to how as developers how would you say that you have built a successful social networking site.
10. Dr. Yue asked us to start working on our part of the technical paper.
11. Mr. De Silva mentioned that we would have a closer look at the prototype. He said that in the next mentor meeting he would compare the prototype with Use case diagram, sequence diagram and site map.
